MERE BUDDHISM SAYS DR. TORREY OF SCIENTISTS

Declares Converted Buddhist
So Termed it After Hearing Its Philosophy.

Pilate's Predicament Confronts Every Man.

REVIVALIST AT AUDITORIUM.

"Buddhist nonsense," is the phrase Dr. R. A. Torrey used to describe Christian Science at the Auditorium last night, and he related an incident, in which a high caste Indian lady friend of his was introduced to Christian Science, after that she had been converted from Buddhism.

He said a Christian Scientist in Boston informed her that he wished to acquaint her with a more advanced system of Christian philosophy, and unfolded to her the theory of Christian Science. As the exposition progressed his friend began to smile depreciatingly and finally commented: "That is all old to me. I was brought up on that philosophy. That is simply Buddhism."

He admitted that Christian Science has in many instances benefited the body, by, as he said, taking the patient's mind off his ailment, real or imaginary; but he insisted that there are people lying in their graves, who might have been alive today, if they had believed the evidence of their own senses and taken rational treatment for real diseases and injuries. Instead of merely denying facts, "You can't eradicate by simply denying them," said Dr. Torrey.

Doctrine of Denial.

Denying a fact does not alter the fact. In this superficial twentieth century we have a very easy way of disposing of the facts we don't like to believe. We say, "I don't believe in hell," and they think that they have shut the gates of hell by saying that.

Men who don't want to believe in the Bible say, "I don't believe in the Bible," and they think they annihilate the book that has stood for nineteen centuries by saying that.

Men who do not want to believe in Christ say, "I do not believe that Jesus Christ is the Son of God," and they think by their not believing it He ceases to be the Son of God.

Has it never occurred to you that a fact is a fact whether you believe it or not?

We have got some people in America that have become so possessed with the idea that denying a thing is quite sufficient to annihilate it, that they declare that there is no such thing as pain. They tell you not to believe there is such a thing as pain, and then you won't feel it. But when they go to the dentist and get into the chair they jump just as much as any one else! And in this foolish belief they are dying by the score, by the miserable madness of Christian Science, that dares to deny sickness, which exists at the same and sweeps them into premature graves.

Denying a fact does not alter a fact, and denying Jesus is the Son of God does not alter the fact that He is the Son of God. It only makes you guilty of robbing a divine Person of the honor that is His due. Listen! There are five indisputable divine testimonies to the deity of Jesus Christ.

In the first place, there is the testimony of the divine life He lived, for He lived as never man lived. Napoleon Bonaparte said, "I know men, but Jesus Christ was no mere man."

In the second place, there is the testimony of the divine words He spoke, for He spoke as never man spoke.

In the third place, there is the testimony of the divine works He wrought; not merely healing the sick, but cleansing the lepers, stilling the tempest, raising the dead, and feeding the five thousand by a creative act with five small loaves and two small fishes.

In the fourth place, then, is the divine attestation of the resurrection from the dead. The resurrection of Christ from the dead is the best proven fact of history.

Dr. Torrey's sermon last night was a continuation of the theme of the preceding night dealing with "What will you do with Jesus?"

Plate's Predicament.

He related the episode in which

Balloon Record For Distance is Broken by Racers Who are Seen in Canada After Crossing the Lakes

One Sighted in Province of Quebec, 1,200 Miles From Starting Point at St. Louis—Others Came Down.

Quebec, Canada, Oct. 20. A balloon, carrying two men, is reported today to have passed over Kiskiing, near Lake St. John, in Quebec province. It was traveling eastward. St. John is 1,200 miles from St. Louis.

Many Stay Up.

St. Louis, Oct. 20.—Six of the sky racers in the international classic, which started in St. Louis Monday, have, it is thought, sailed over Lake Huron, and Georgia Bay into Canada and are more than 700 miles northeast of this city.

The seventh survivor in the race, the Duseldorf II, piloted by Hans Gercke, was last reported to have passed over Sutton Bay, Mich., and believed to have crossed the eastern end of Lake Superior into Ontario.

Beyond a belt 100 to 200 miles wide, north of Lake Huron, Ontario, is a wilderness with few railroads. If the pilots bring their gas bags to earth in the forests it may be several days before they will be able to telephone their landings.

The trip across Lake Michigan was made successfully by eight of the entrants. The balloon St. Louis No. 4 was forced to land near Illinois, Mich., after travelling 655 miles, because of lack of ballast to negotiate the eight acres Lake Huron. With the million population club afoot, the hope of the United States winning the race rests in the American II, piloted by Alan H. Hawley.

The third balloon which is down is the Condor. It, like the Million Population club did not attempt to cross Lake Michigan, and landed in Wisconsin, near Two Rivers. The balloons which came to earth have carried gas bags. The others have gas bags of rubber.

The record made by the late Oscar Schlotz in the 1907 race of 873.4 miles is believed will be broken.

Frost Is Predicted

The predicted change in temperature came last night and the spring-like weather of yesterday was in decided contrast with the chill of this morning. Mercury dropped 10 degrees and the warmest temperature for today was three degrees lower than the lowest of Tuesday and Wednesday. Overcoats and wraps are comfortable and are much in evidence, to say nothing with the splutter of steam heat and the crackling of grate fires. Winter is believed to have come with the forecast for much colder weather to-night as any one else! And in this foolish belief they are dying by the score, by the miserable madness of Christian Science, that dares to deny sickness, which exists at the same and sweeps them into premature graves.

Prof. J. A. Carnegy, superintendent of the city schools, received a message today, announcing the death of his father, T. F. Carnegy, of Rantoul, Kansas, last Monday. The message was delayed and the news was not received until today. The funeral took place today. He is survived by two sons; Professor Carnegy, of Paducah, and Charles Carnegy, of Laevine, Kansas, and two daughters in Ottawa, Kansas.

DAVID B. HILL, OF NEW YORK, DEAD

FORMER BOSS, WHOSE QUARREL WITH GROVER CLEVELAND IS FAMOUS.

Albany, N. Y., Oct. 20.—Former United States Senator David Bennett Hill, once governor of New York state Democratic organization, died at his home here early today. He was 61 years old. His bitter conflicts with the Grover Cleveland organization, culminated in Cleveland's abandoning New York state as his home, and taking up his residence in New Jersey.

Hill was once an aspirant for the Democratic presidential nomination. His famous expression, "I am a Democrat," was considered the last word in loyal partisanship.

YOUTHS RUN AWAY FROM CHARGES IN MARSHALL COUNTY

When They Hear That Mary Blalock and Ethel Vinson Have Returned.

George Tidwell, of Hardin, Before County Judge.

GIRLS WERE HIS SOLICITORS.

Murphy, Ky., Oct. 20. (Special)—While George Tidwell, a married man of Hardin, was being examined, after being brought in here to answer charges made against him concerning Ethel Vinson and Mary Blalock, 14 year old girls, with whom he is said to have been in Lyon and Livingston counties, it is reported a half dozen young men of Hardin stole a handcar and started in the direction of Paducah, presumably frightened by the prospects of the girls telling all that has happened to them since they disappeared during the Caloway county fair.

The girls live at Brandon's Mill, this county, and came in to the fair. They went to Hardin and from there, it is said and went with Tidwell, who is an itinerant picture agent. He took them into Lyon and Livingston counties. He said he found them at Hardin and tried to persuade them to go home. When they would not, he took them with him to a saloon. The girls said they intended going into southeastern Missouri.

The Blalock girl is the daughter of Robert Blalock. Ethel Vinson is an orphan. They promised when brought here last night to make a clean breast of everything. They said they were with Tidwell and he was brought here this morning and presented before County Judge Patterson. It is believed that several warrants will result from the disclosures made by the girls.

Dr. Crippen Says He Believes His Wife Fled to America With Bruce Miller as She Often Threatened Defense Takes Up Testimony in London Murder Case—King Manuel, of Portugal, Arrives in London.

London, Oct. 20.—The crown this afternoon rested its prosecution in the trial of Dr. Crippen. Crippen immediately prepared to take the stand and it was expected he would deny all charges against him. It was not thought in the court room that the crown has made a very strong case.

Dr. Crippen, on the witness stand, this afternoon, gave his version of the disappearance of his wife, Belle Elmore. He revealed that the defense will try to prove Mrs. Crippen is not dead, but fled to America ostensibly to join Bruce Miller, of Chicago.

"I knew my wife was friendly with Miller," Crippen testified. "I often upgraded her for corresponding with him. She repeatedly threatened to leave me, saying that she could go to America and join Miller. I last saw her January 31."

The Perfection Oil Heater is finished in Japan or nickel. It burns for nine hours. It has a cool handle and a damper top. It has an automatic locking flame spreader, which prevents the wick from being turned high enough to smoke, and is easy to remove and drop back so that the wick can be quickly cleaned. An indicator always shows amount of oil in the font.

The filler-cap does not need to be screwed down. It is put in like a cork in a bottle, and is attached to the font by a chain.

The burner body or gallery cannot become wedged, because of a new device in construction, and consequently, it can always be easily unscrewed in an instant for relighting. The Perfection Oil Heater is strong, durable, well made, built for service, yet light and ornamental.

WALTER WELLMAN REACHES NEW YORK

BRUISED HAND AVIATOR'S ONLY WOUND ON VOYAGE.

He Made Nearly 800 Miles—No Regret Expressed for Lost Air Craft.

EQUILIBRATOR A FAILURE.

New York, Oct. 20.—Walter Wellman and his five companions were lauded here this afternoon by the steamship Trent, which picked them up at sea after they had abandoned their dirigible balloon America and failed in the first attempt ever made to cross the Atlantic through the air. A bruised right hand, which Wellman carried in a sling, was the only physical injury that resulted from their long voyage of approximately 900 miles and a rescue the like of which is unknown to all history.

None of the aeronauts expressed regret for the loss of the America. They agreed that it had served its purpose and taught its lesson. All stand ready to renew the attempt as soon as Wellman and engineers find a way to conquer the difficulties that brought their first trip to its thrilling end last Tuesday morning, 400 miles southeast of Sandy Hook.

Standing on the deck of the Trent, clad in the game suit of khaki, he wore when he and his crew launched the America last Saturday at Atlantic City, Wellman made this statement:

Future Plans Indefinite.
"We thought we could not get along without the equilibrator. Now we find out we could not get along with it. Our plans for the future are indefinite until we find something that will do what we thought the equilibrator would do."

The "equilibrator," to which Wellman attributes the failure of his voyage, was the series of tanks containing gasoline which floated in the water attached to the airship by a long rope. Its purpose, in addition to storing gasoline and serving as a wireless "ground," was to keep the balloon steady, compensating for the expansion and contraction of gas, due to changes in temperature, which would have made the America rise or sink erratically.

The America's experience proved that this floating tail, jerking at the delicately poised airship, made it impossible to steer or make headway in the desired direction and severely weakened the structure. To find another means of compensating for this unavoidable change in the volume of gas is the problem to which Wellman and his engineer, Melvin Vaniman, will now devote their attention.

The direct cause of abandoning the America was the exhaustion of the supply of gasoline, which had to be thrown out to save the ship. When the crew abandoned the balloon only enough was left to last about 24 hours.

This is Wellman's description of how he hurt his hand:

"While we were afloat in our life boat trying to reach the Trent, I tried to grasp a rope thrown from the steamer. In some way the rope got twisted about my hand and before I could get loose it nearly tore off my little finger and badly bruised the rest of my hand."

The comparative unimportance of the injury, however, was demonstrated by the fact that as Wellman said this, he held a cigar in his bandaged hand and was not obliged to let the number rest in a sling.

The others of the America's crew were safe.

Wives and Mothers There.

In this party were Mrs. Wellman, Mrs. Vaniman, Mrs. Leroy Chamberlain, Wellman's married daughter, and his three unmarried daughters, and Mrs. Sarah Loud, mother of Mrs. Vaniman and of Albert L. Loud.

She had a long wait at quarantine, and it was not until 4:15 that Wellman descended the companionway from the steamer to the deck of the tug.

With tears in her eyes Mrs. Wellman embraced her husband and kissed him on both cheeks. The aged Mrs. Loud stood, weeping with one arm around her son and the other around her son-in-law, while Mrs. Vaniman, also in tears of joy, hung on her husband's arm.

The Injured.

DR. L. H. CORR, of Carlinville, right hand and elbow hurt.

MRS. GEORGE J. EASTLE, of Carlinville, back and knee injured, not serious.

GRVILLE E. VATTEN, of Chicago, small cut, serious.

ROBERT GREEN, of St. Louis, injured about abdomen.

MRS. ROBERT GREEN, hurt about body.

A. L. BERKE, Bloomington, end face, the limb injured head and face, serious.

MRS. O. M. McNISH, of Ridgway, Col., severe shaking up.

R. H. MALLIMORE, of Chicago, mall clerk, injured internally.

R. W. KEWLEY, Chicago, mall clerk, cuts and bruises.

MRS. LEONA COFFMAN, of Pine Bluff, Ark., head cut.

MRS. A. S. THOMPSON, of Runnen Tex., sprained ankle.

W. D. DOUGLAS, of St. Louis, cut over right eye.

L. L. WEINSTEIN, of New York City, cut near right eye.

THOMAS R. ATHERTON, dining car cook, scalped by steam cooking apparatus.

E. MCALPIN, of Chicago, bruised.

A switch near Nilwood was open and the passenger train crossed to the southbound double track and strayed into the freight track. So terrific was the impact that the freight engine, the smaller of the two locomotives, was driven back into the train 120 feet.

He Threw His Arm Around Her.

After the Wellman party had boarded the tug Wellman stood with his arm about his wife and one of his daughters and joined those on board the tug in cheers for the Trent and her captain, Charles E. Down.

The offerings for today on the local markets follow:

LIVESTOCK.

Louisville, Oct. 20.—The receipts of hogs today were only 725 head, making a total of 4,000 for the three days this week. With a good healthy demand for all weights and no scant supply on sale, the selling end had things pretty much their own way and forced prices 10 to 15¢ higher than yesterday. Selected heavy hogs, 220 pounds and up, selling at $9.15; medium and light shippers, 120 to 220 pounds, $9.30. Pigs sold mostly at $8.95 and roughs $8.25 down. The pens were well cleared and the market closed steady.

Sheep and Lambs.

The receipts of sheep and lambs were very light—216 head—or $84 for the three days this week. The market ruled quiet, not much doing. Prices nominally steady. The best fat sheep, 2½ to 3c down. Common sheep dull at 1 to 2½c; best lambs, 5 to 5½c; medium and common, 3 to 5c.

Cattle.

Today's cattle receipts numbered 122 head, or 3,744 for the three days this week. The buying crowd was local and about normal for the middle of the week, the demand rather light and the market continued quiet, with but little doing in any department. There was a fairly good call for the best butcher cattle at steady figures, while the medium and common kinds were dull and drab. Good inquiry for the best feeders and stockers, as well as for good-weight shop steers. Common, trashy stockers show green 850 pound of 1,100-pound steers of poor grade were very dull. Good bulls steady. Common bulls and cattlers slow. Milch cows unchanged, and the feeling is still weak on heavy and medium shipping steers.

Calfes.

Receipts, 146; for the three days, 520. The market ruled quiet, about steady. The best, 7½ to 8½c. Some fancy light calves higher. Medium 6 to 7½c common, 2½ to 6c.

St. Louis.—Cattle—Receipts 7,000; market steady; native beef steers $3.75 to $8.00; hogs in carload lots $6.00 to $8.00. Hogs—Receipts 5,000; market steady; pigs and hogs $8.75 to $9.10; packers $8.25 to $9.30; butchers and best heavy $8.80 to $9.40. Sheep—Receipts 1,500; market steady; native muttons $3.90 to $4.50; lambs $5.50 to $7.10.

PARK COMMISSIONERS

WILL MEET TWICE EACH MONTH HEREAFTER.

First and Third Wednesday Adopted As the Regular Dates By Round.

Regular meetings of the city board of park commissioners will be held the first and third Wednesday afternoons of each month. This was decided at a special meeting of the board yesterday afternoon. Today the commissioners are making an inspection of the parks, and sites over the city. The work of constructing the park on South Tenth street has been delayed slightly, and will begin again soon.

An Expert's Opinion.

A student in a medical college, while learning the use of the ophthalmoscope, was told to examine my eye and report upon the condition of it. The doctor-to-be adjusted the instrument and looked long and searching into the subject's left optic.

"Most remarkable," he ejaculated, with a surprised look. Readjusting the ophthalmoscope, he again carefully scrutinized the eye. "Very extraordinary, indeed," he exclaimed. "I never heard of such an eye. This must be some new disease. Have you ever had an expert's opinion on it?"

"Once," was the laconic reply. "The man who put it in said it was a fine bit of glass."—Tit-Bits.

MAKING HER USEFUL.

"He loves me, he loves me not," murmured the romantic summer boarder.

"You must have picked a thousand daisies to pieces today," remarked the old farmer.

"Possible I have."

"Couldn't you play the game just as well with potato bugs?"

"Once," was the laconic reply. "The man who put it in said it was a fine bit of glass."—Tit-Bits.

DAMAGE SUITS FOR DIRECTORS

CHARGE GROSS MISMANAGEMENT OF AFFAIRS.

ASK $10,000,000 DAMAGES AND DEMAND ACCOUNTING TO ALL MAIN AND SUBSIDIARY LINES.

AS SUBPOENAS ARE SERVED

Chicago, Oct. 20.—Unexpected excitement was furnished at the annual meeting of the stockholders of the Illinois Central railroad. Attorney Maxwell Edgar, who held proxies from an independent committee, including Secretary Franklin MacVeagh of the United States treasury, made charges of gross mismanagement of the affairs of the railroad company. Almost simultaneously deputy sheriffs served subpoenas on the officers of the road to appear in a $10,000,000 damage suit brought by Attorney Edgar.

Say Reports Not Correct.

In addition to the plea for $10,000,000 damages, the suit, which is brought "for the use of the Illinois Central Railroad Company" against the directors of the corporation, also demands an accounting of all the road's finances, both of the main line and the subsidiary lines. The principal allegation on which the suit is based is that the annual reports are not correct and that the directors are responsible for losses which the road is alleged to have sustained.

The Parton station, where the stockholders' meeting was held, was surrounded by deputy sheriffs, placed there to guard against any attempt to evade service which might, it was feared, be made by Eastern directors.

Mr. Edgar introduced a resolution to the stockholders demanding an investigation of the conduct of the road's affairs by the directors and officers. It was lost by an overwhelming vote of 784,160 shares against 641.

Leeman Asked to Be Excused.

Mr. Edgar stated that he represented 60 shares of stock and also a special committee of stockholders, including Secretary MacVeagh, A. Montgomery Ward, Joseph Coleman and Henry W. Leeman. Mr. Leeman, who was one of the stockholders who fought for the retention of Stuyvesant Fish as president of the road a few years ago, arose in the meeting and asked to be excused as a member of the committee which Mr. Edgar said he represented.

After the visit of the deputy sheriff with the summons, Mr. Edgar presented another resolution asking that the stockholders agree on a civil suit for an accounting of sums alleged to have been lost to the road through dealings in which the late F. G. Rawl appeared. The resolution was voted down, as was another resolution asking that suit be brought against C. A. Peabody and A. G. Hackenstaff to recover bonds of $50,000 and $100,000.

The actual business of the meeting was to re-elect as directors for four years J. T. Harman of Chicago and Cornelius Vanderbilt and Henry W. DeForest of New York. In the course of time, the election was brought about.

With the exception of Mr. DeForest, Robert S. Lovett and Robert W. Goetz, all the Eastern directors were present and were served with subpoenas. Gov. Deneen, who is a director, ex-officio, and who attended the directors' meeting, did not attend the stockholders' meeting. He is not named in the suit.

WHAT'S THE USE

To keep a "coffee complexion." A lady says: "Postum has helped my complexion so much that my friends say I am growing young again. My complexion used to be fair colored, mucky and yellow but it is now clear and rosy as when I was a girl."

"I was induced to try Postum by a friend who had suffered just as I had suffered from terrible indigestion, palpitation of the heart and sinking spells."

"After I had used Postum a week I was so much better that I was afraid it would not last. But now two years have passed and I am a well woman. I owe it all to leaving off coffee and drinking Postum in its place."

"I had drunk coffee all my life. I suspected that it was the cause of my trouble, but it was not until I actually quit coffee and started to try Postum that I became certain; then all my troubles ceased and I am now well and strong again."

"There's a reason."

"Look in pkgs. for the famous little book, 'The Road to Wellville.' Ever read the above letter? A new one appears from time to time. They are genuine, true, and full of human interest."

Something in That.

Louisville is making a laughing stock of itself by the rumpus over the census figures. The trouble with Louisville is that the directory people every year make Louisville have about 40,000 more citizens than it really has, so that the straight figures started and disappointed the city. Then they announced a plan to send somebody to Washington to look at the books. Uncle Sam ought to take that officious ambassador by the seat of the pants and the nape of the neck and throw him over the monument.—Third District Review.

DAILY THOUGHT.

It is never the question of how much we can do with our own hand or our own hands, or our own lives; it is always a question how much we are willing to let God do with them.—Anon.

BY THE BYE, what has become of the prosecution of city officials, who were alleged by the News-Democrat to have sold articles to the city. It told us that County Attorney Clay would place the matter before the grand jury in September. The grand jury has adjourned without any report on the subject. Two of the Democratic candidates for aldermen were accused by the News-Democrat.

AS TO REPAIRING COUNTY ROADS.

We were delighted to observe the statement in the morning paper last week that the county road supervisor is getting through with repairs to roads damaged by the rain of two weeks ago. This will give him time, perhaps, to mend some roads that were damaged a year or more ago. A personal trip out Broadway and over the road to the tuberculosis sanitarium revealed gutters that had been washed out and ground out months ago. A blind man could tell when he reaches the city limits, going out Broadway.

THE BEST PRISON CONTEST.

Judging from the interview had with Col. Mott Ayer upon his return from the prison congress, Kentucky has the best board in the world, but Governor Willson did wrong in vetoing the appropriation the board wanted with which to build more prisons. That was the opinion of Senator Mike Taylor, too, whose efforts to secure the appropriations were recognized by the board with the appointment to a job, though Senator Mike vehemently protested before the legislature adjourned that rumors of his impending appointment were false. The Russian representative at the congress also declared that Russia has the most humane and modern prison system in the world; so a board of referees will have to be appointed to decide, which has the best prison system, Russia or Kentucky.

A BAD LAW.

There are many iniquities connected with the fee system, but none we know that are fraught with more possibilities of evil than the law, which gives prosecuting attorneys a division of fines. Recently a half dozen or so bawdy house keepers were indicted, and submitted to an agreed fine of $50, of which the prosecuting officers get three-fourths. We do not contend that the laborer's not worthy of his hire. If that is the way the law says they are to get their pay, we have no objection to their drawing it that way, but we say the law is a bad one.

We shall agree to every good thing anybody wishes to say about our prosecuting officers in the circuit court of this county; we do not even hint that they are not above suspicion; but in the hands of bad men such a law could be made profile of graft.

Consider,—those men have access to the grand jury room and have great weight with the grand jurors in returning indictments. Supposing they simply desired to make money for themselves by securing indictments against the women, forcing them to submit to nominal fines, and then pocketing the major part of the fines. Who is benefited?

It will not do to say the women are doing an unlawful thing, and therefore are entitled to no sympathy. The fines do not interfere with their business, but make them only the more active to exact back the amount they are mulcted. It does the state no good; because the state doesn't want their money; it wants them to stop their business. A division of their earnings with the county prosecuting officers is, after all, about what it amounts to for all practical purposes. Of course, the notoriety exposes to the public the fact of their existence, if any benefit will flow from that.

Any law that makes it profitable for an official to find a citizen guilty of an offense and to compromise the penalty by an agreement with the accused is a bad law, regardless of how virtuous the officials chosen to enforce it.

De Bardi-Poss.
A beautiful wedding in Ithaca, N. Y., that has its especial interest here was that of Miss Enidie DeBardi, a graceful and charming Tennessee girl, now living in Ithaca, and Mr. Howard Coburn Foss, formerly of Paducah. Mr. Foss is exceedingly popular in Paducah and his lovely bride was an attractive visitor here on several occasions, the guest of Miss Mary Scott, 735 Madison street. It was in Paducah the courtship began that culminated in the brilliant wedding ceremony and attendant events as noted by the Ithaca papers:

The First Presbyterian church of Ithaca has rarely if ever been the scene of a more beautiful picture than the one presented on Saturday evening, when Mrs. Euclid DeBardi, formerly of McMinnville, Tenn., and Mr. Howard C. Foss, of Boston were united in marriage. The church, which in itself is very handsome, was beautifully decorated in Autumn leaves and cut flowers, making a lovely back ground for the wedding party. An elaborate musical program was given before the ceremony, following the organ prelude. Mrs. R. C. Manderville sang "Because I Love You," then "Love Abiding" was sung by Mr. J. W. Routle. The next selection was a duet "Still As the Night," by Mrs. Manderville and Mrs. Wright. Mr. Hans Victor gave a violin solo and just preceding the wedding march Mrs. Wright sang, in her lovely soprano voice, "Because God Made These Mine."

Lohengrin was used as a professional. First entered two groomsman, Mr. W. K. Wells and E. B. LaRoche of Charleston, S. C., advancing down the aisle alone followed by two maidens. Mrs. Frances Kilborne and Bertha Patterson of Ohio, coming single down the central aisle. Then, Mr. J. S. Mann, of North Carolina and Mr. J. W. Routle followed by Miss Minnie Edgar of Wilmington, Del., and Katherine Willis, of Ohio. The matron Mrs. Freeman, formally Miss Nicholson, of Alabama, came next, then the maid of honor Miss Enidie Clark of Hartford, N. Y. Little Allen Grant preceded the bride carrying the ring in a calla lily. The bride entered with her brother, Mr. Davis M. DeBardi and was met at the altar by the bridegroom and his best man, Mr. Douglass Bagby, of Paducah, Ky. Rev. J. F. Etchison performed the ceremony.

TORREY'S SERMON

Pontius Pilate tried to get Christ off his hands. He said Pilate was afraid to condemn Christ, because he knew Him to be innocent, and he was afraid to set Him free because of the mob.

So he told the mob to judge Him by their laws. The mob replied: "We have no law and by that law He should die; but we have not the power of life or death."

So Christ was again on Pilate's hands.

Then Pilate heard that Christ was a Galilean and Herod was the tetrarch of that province. So he sent Christ to Herod, congratulating him self that he had wriggled out of a predicament. But soon he saw Christ coming back from Herod, and once more he had to decide what to do with Jesus.

Then he remembered that about the time of the Passover, one prisoner, whom the people should choose, was set free, and he thought to trick them into setting Jesus free. He offered them Jesus or Barabbas. Now, Barabbas was the most depraved and vicious prisoner he had, and he supposed they would not dare for their own safety to choose Barabbas. But the mob cried, "Give us Barabbas," and once more Pilate had Jesus on his hands.

"Every man and woman here must decide tonight as Pilate did.

Life Insurance or Death Insurance—Which?

People willingly pay large sums for life insurance, which is really death insurance; but real life insurance frequently consists in taking Eckman's Alternative. "Young sick" person afford not to take the Alternative?

It sharpens the appetite, makes life look different, brings better health with greater strength, people often grow so much improved that they can work even before they are finally cured. Investigate it, if you are broad minded enough to realize that which has not been sensationaly exploited, or which is not based merely on climatic or diet restrictions. Mr. Webb's report follows:

Gentlemen: "During 1903, my physician sent me to Texas, from there to Colorado. I became well, and was sent home to die. A friend of mine, an Alternative, began treatment, and was cured. I earnestly recommend Eckman's wonderful cure for Consumption."

GRAY HAIRS BANISHED.

The old idea of using sage for darkening the hair is again coming in vogue. Our grandmothers used to have dark, glossy hair at the age of seventy-five, while our mothers have white hair before they are fifty. Our grandmothers used to make a "sage tea" and apply it to their hair. The tea made their hair soft and glossy and gradually restored the natural color. One objection to using such a preparation was the trouble of washing it, especially as it had to be made every two or three days on account of its souring quickly. This objection has been overcome and by asking almost any first-class druggist for Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur the public can get a superior preparation of sage, with the admixture of sulphur, another valuable remedy for hair and scalp troubles. Daily use of this preparation will not only quickly restore the color of the hair but will also strip the hair from falling out and make it grow. It is sold by all druggists for 50c. and $1.00 a bottle, or is sent direct by the Wyeth Chemical Company, 71 Cortlandt St., New York City, upon receipt of price.

WM M'EWAN

Will Repeat

"The Holy City"

TONIGHT

A Great Song

By a

Great Singer

Mr. William McEwan will sing "The Holy City" at the Auditorium meeting tonight. This is by special request. Mr. McEwan's singing has taken the city by storm, and the playing of Miss Anderson at the piano is remarked as wonderful by musicians. Last night Mr. McEwan sang Mrs. Williams' great song, "Come Unto Me." After the sermon he sang another favorite, "What Will You Do With Jesus?"

The attendance at the morning meeting today showed the results of the special effort put forth yesterday and the services of prayer. A great many more than usual attended, many of those who were there yesterday returning. Prayer meetings were held at many homes today, also, and will be tomorrow, the places being announced each evening.

Tonight Dr. Torrey will speak on "A Sad Utterance." This will be an important subject.

Jacoby's Class.
How to Deal With the Indifferent was the subject of the Rev. W. S. Jacoby's address to his class of personal workers this morning at the Auditorium.

At the outset the Rev. Mr. Jacoby defined the indifferent person as one being so busily occupied with worldly things that he has no time to think of God. As a result he is careless and neglects the latter. In order to arouse this kind of people the speaker said they should be taken to the word of God and be convicted of their sin. Five points were emphasized by Mr. Jacoby.

He said, "I am the man, and I have come to Haileart, sir, to tell you that you will never charge me with high treason again," and he held out his hand, and I held out mine, and he took mine in his mighty grip—and it was a mighty grip!—and he said, "Down!" and he dropped on his knees, and I dropped on mine, and he said, "Lord Jesus, I hand in my allegiance; I give up my treason; I take Thee as my King."

You men ought to do it tonight. He is your King, and every man and woman among you that does not accept Him and acknowledge Him as such tonight I charge you with high treason against Heaven's King.

But He is more than your King—He is the Son of God. He is a divine Person, and if you reflect on Him you are guilty of rejecting the Son of God; if you deny Him, you are guilty of denying the Son of God;

if you shut Him out of your hearts, you are guilty of shutting the Son of God out of your hearts; if you take your stand against Him, you are guilty of taking your stand against the Son of God.

A Solemn Moment.

It is a more solemn moment and more awful crisis for you tonight, for you know better who Jesus is. There you sit, and there stands Jesus again, unsee, but there He surely stands, in all the dignity and beauty of His perfect manhood; there He stands in all the glory of His perfect Deity; there He stands in all the wondrousness of His matchless love, crowned with thorns, and with pierced hands. And there you sit, trying to decide what to do with Him. In your heart there are higher voices and lower voices. There is the voice of the Spirit of God, which says, "Accept Him; confess Him; let Him into your heart; take your stand on His side." But, nay, there are lower voices of cowardice, the fear of what people will say, which says, "Reject Him tonight; take your stand against Him." There is the voice of avarice, the greed for gold that might slip through your fingers if you became a real Christian and that says, "Reject Him." There is the voice of lust, low and beastly, that says, "Reject Him." There is the voice of low political trickery, which says it will rob you of influence in your political party if you become a real Christian, and that says, "Reject Him." There is the voice of just, low and beastly, that says, "Reject Him." Men and women, I charge every man and woman in this building tonight—I care not what position in society you hold—I charge you, I indict you, every man and woman, every man and woman in the building out of Christ, of high treason against Heaven's King, and if you got your just deserts you would die.

One day in Maryborough, over in Australia, a fine looking man came to see me, an unusually fine looking man, with splendid physique and dove-like forehead. He said, "I want to talk with you," and I said, "Very well, take a seat, sir."

He said, "I don't know about your preaching. Now I am a moral, upright man, and no one can deny it. I would like you to tell me what you have against me."

I said, "Are you a Christian?"

"No, sir," he replied. "Have you taken Jesus Christ as your personal Savior, and surrendered your life to Him as your Lord and Master, and confessed Him as such before the world, and given your life to Him?"

"No, sir," he replied.

"Then," I said, "I charge you, sir, with high treason against your King. Jesus Christ is your King; God made Him so; and I charge you, sir"—and I looked him right in the eye—"I charge you, sir, with the crime of high treason against your King."

And a dark cloud came over the man's face as he got up, and, going out of my room, he said, "Good afternoon" and walked away.

Danderine

GROWS HAIR

and we can

PROVE IT!

A lady from Minnesota writes:

"As a result of using Danderine, my hair is close to five feet in length."

Beautiful Hair At Small Cost

HAT troubles, like many other diseases, have been wrongly diagnosed and altogether misunderstood. The hair itself is not the cause of the trouble, but the scalp that is simply a product of the scalp and wholly dependent upon its action. The scalp is the very soil in which the hair is produced, nurtured and grows. If the scalp is healthy, good results are to be expected. It would do no earthly good to treat the stem of a plant with a view of making it grow and become more bearable, but the root must be treated to do this. Therefore, the scalp in which the hair grows must receive the attention if you are to have good hair.

Loss of hair is caused by the scalp drying up, or losing the supply of moisture or nutriment; when baldness occurs the scalp has usually lost all its nutriment.

BISHOP CANDLER

WILL PRESIDE OVER METHODIST CONFERENCE.

Recent Utterance of Man, Who Will Visit Paducah Next Month.

Bishop Warren A. Candler, who presided over the session of the Tennessee conference at Clarksville the last week, will hold th Memphis conference at the Broadway Methodist church, Paducah, November 16. The following in regard to conference appointments credited to him, may be of interest here:

"In his talk to the conference Saturday Bishop Candler inveigled severely upon the "all too common practice of scheming for the best appointments." He said Methodist preachers could find more excuse for not wanting to go to certain places than one could shake a stick at, and more good reasons why they should be sent elsewhere. A preacher, he said, should be willing to work for God anywhere. He said he was heartily tired of the schemers and their schemes."

"A preacher stated today, that Bishop Candler had said that after the reporters were through making the appointments he intended himself to take a crack at it just to see whether or not the newspaper list could be improved upon. The bishop concluded his observations by declaring that he had a little inside information left on hand that the reporters had probably overlooked."

For More Than Three Decades Foley's Honey and Tar has been a household favorite for coughs, colds and ailments of the throat, chest and lungs. Contains no opiate. Gilbert's drug store.

SOUR STOMACH

"I used Cascarets and feel like a new man. I have been a sufferer from dyspepsia and sour stomach for the last two years. I have been taking medicine and other drugs, but could find no relief for a short time. I will recommend Cascarets to my friends as the only thing for indigestion and sour stomach and to keep the bowels in good condition. They are very nice to eat."
